The Northampton Recorded Music Society provides a friendly environment where lovers of music of all genres can meet together to listen to music.

We can discuss and exchange views on music, recordings and equipment during the interval.

The music played at our meetings is usually presented by one of our members, but from time to time we have the benefit of visiting speakers.

There is no obligation for a member or an attendee to present a programme.

Members pay an annual subscription of £8.00 and a fee of £2 per evening, which includes refreshments.

Visitors pay an attendance fee of £2.50.
